2007 SELKIRK SHIRAZ

Purple-red; a complex bouquet of black fruits, licorice and spice, the palate taking these characters on to another dimension, with a touch of chocolate, ripe but soft tannins, and oak. Screwcap. 14.5% alc. Rating 94 Drink 2017 $24

2007 SPECIAL RELEASE CABERNET

Has all the varietal aroma and flavour hallmarks expected of cabernet overlain with that special softness (in the best sense) of Langhorne Creek, and touches of chocolate and herb to add extra interest. Screwcap. 14.8% alc. Rating 92 Drink 2017 $24

2007 MALBEC

Has the almost unreal depth of crimson-purple colour malbec can achieve, with lots of black fruits and Christmas pudding flavours, yet without much structure.

2007 TAMBLYN CABERNET/SHIRAZ/MALBEC/MERLOT

Good crimson colour; a powerful wine, slightly outside the normal supple Bremerton style; there is the full array of blackberry, blackcurrant, licorice and plum fruit girdled by positive tannins. Value, but patience needed. Screwcap. 14.5% alc. Rating 89 Drink 2017 $18
